ProStart and the MRAEF

The National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation's ProStart program unites the food service industry and classroom together to offer high school students a platform to discover new interests and talents, while opening doors to fulfilling careers.

The ProStart program began in 1997 with 100 high school students in six schools - Today, in partnership with State Restaurant Associations, ProStart is taught to nearly 120,000 students in more than 1,700 schools.

Each year, the NRAEF holds the annual National ProStart Invitational. It is a fast-paced competition where more than 350 top ProStart students demonstrate their mastery of restaurant leadership, culinary and management skills.

Thirty- three schools in Massachusetts are currently participating in ProStart with several more interested in the program.
